SUPERINTENDENT

Class of '64, soon you will be leaving Fort Valley High School forever. In this school you have won new knowledge, new powers, and new friends. These years together have made possible your glorious achievements for which you will always be remembered.

Fort Valley High School has tried to lay the foundation for that which lies ahead for each of you. I trust that throughout your entire lives you will remember and practice the ideals instilled in you by your teachers.

I admire you very much. You are a class of which all of us are proud. I shall continue my interest in you, and wish for each of you success and happiness.

DEDICATION

For her never-ending work toward the betterment of the students, faculty and administration, we dedicate this 1964 Vallihi to

MRS. BROWN RODGERS

Mrs. Rodgers helps people from far and near.

Jimmy and Kenneth look over a plaque that Mrs. Rodgers has brought to their attention.

WE WILL ALWAYS LOOK BACK ON FVHS

... ITS PURPOSES

... ITS EVENTS

... ITS PEOPLE

A new class is added to the studies at FVHS . . . Music and Art Appreciation.

Lunch . . . the students grasp at the chance to talk with their friends and . . . eat.

The boys enjoy their lunch hour with a game of volleyball.

Students work furiously to maintain deadline on drawings.

Athletics aren't restrained to boys alone, as "Big Jim" demonstrates.

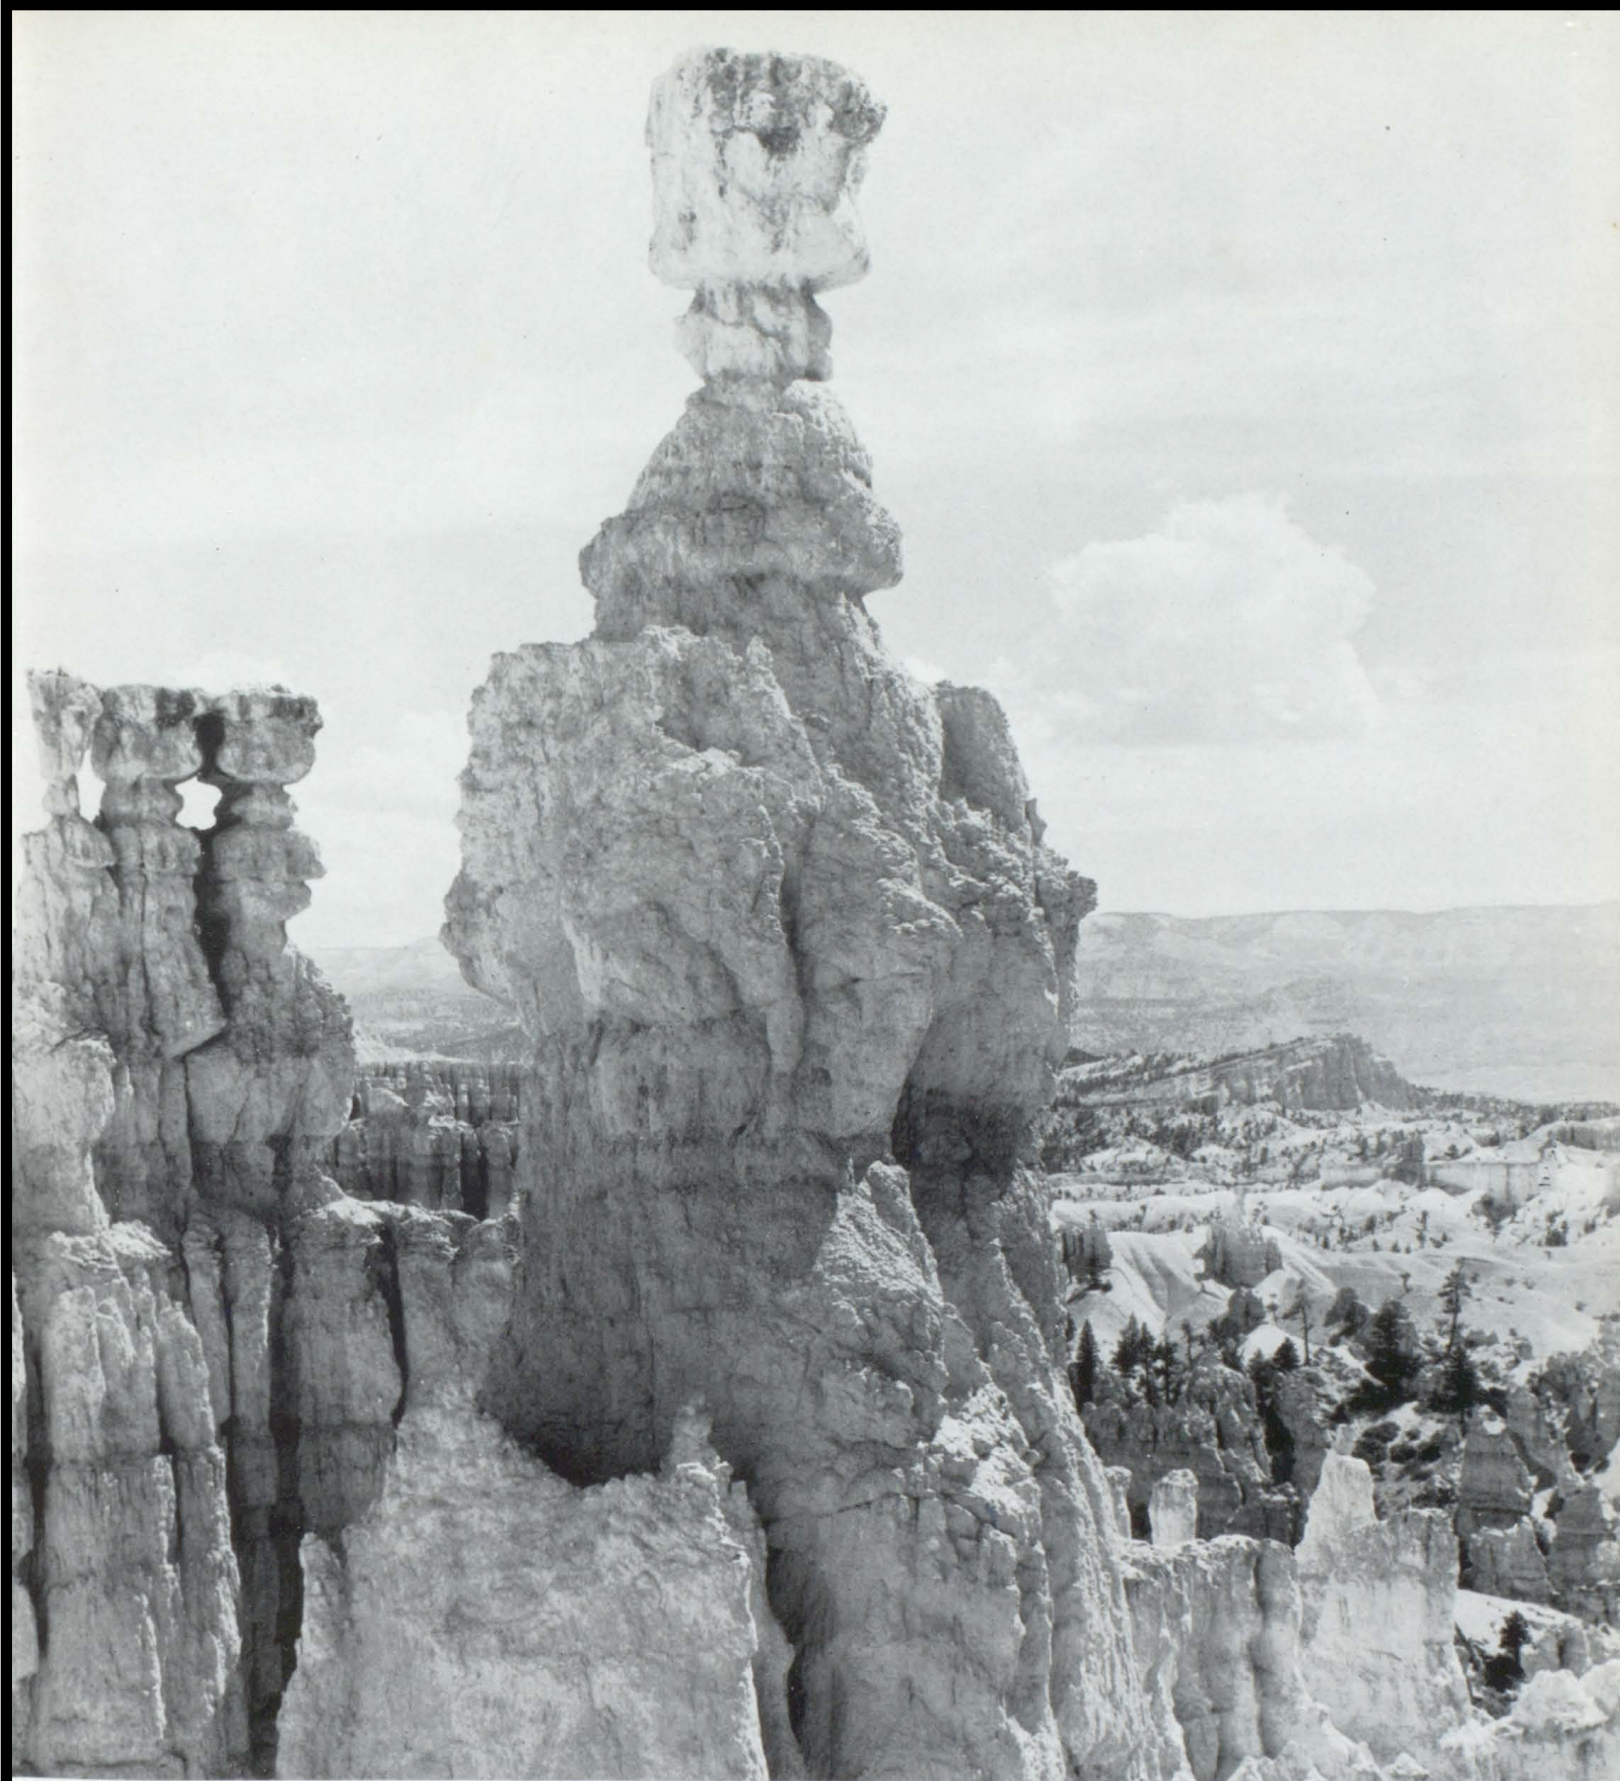

Watch out when classes change.

Mr. McClendon demonstrates some scientific principles, although some don't seem too interested.

In Miss Lee's class she teaches everyone "eyes on the book and fingers on the keys."

Each year the Fort Valley Key Club takes on the responsibilities of editing the school annual. It has been an experience that will linger in the minds of the annual staff for years to come . . . working with the students, faculty, administration and a never-ending list of people outside of the school. Our largest wish is that the few pictures will spark the memory of your years at FVHS.

He came to my desk with quivering lip,
The lesson was done.
"Have you a new leaf for me, dear Teacher?
I have spoiled this one!"
I took his leaf, all soiled and blotted
And gave him a new one, all unspotted,
Then into his tired heart I smiled:
"Do better now, my Child!"
I went to the throne, with trembling heart.
The year was done.
"Have you a New Year for me, dear Master?
I have spoiled this one!"
He took my year, all soiled and blotted
And gave me a new one, all unspotted,
Then, into my tired heart he smiled:
"Do better now, my Child!"

Do all the good you can,
In all the ways you can,
In all the places you can,
At all the times you can,
To all the people you can,
As long as ever you can.

And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?
